MESSAGE:

Respectfully disseminating is the Advisory from the Department of Transportation (DOTr) notifying the public that the ports of Manila are open and in full commercial operations despite the imposition of Luzon-wide Enhanced Community Quarantine. All cargo owners, shippers and consignees are advised to withdraw their cargoes in compliance with the directive of the IATF and contribute to the unhampered flow of goods. All types of cargo without distinction can be withdrawn subject to the usual government clearances.

Further, DOTr thru its Emergency Operations Center launches a COVID-19 Hotlines to ensure fast, reliable and immediate resolutions to any concerns/issues of the riding public that may arise during the imposition of such community quarantine. Cited below are the contact details of all transport sectors established by the Department for your ready reference.
